Paramedic Students Tour Exhibit

WHAT: HFD paramedic students will tour the Museum of Natural Science "Body Worlds" exhibit.

WHEN: Today, June 13, 2006 at 1:45 p.m. (photo at 2 p.m.)

WHERE: Houston Museum of Natural Science, One Hermann Circle Dr.

DETAILS: The Houston Museum of Natural Science has invited HFD members from the current paramedic school to visit the "Body Worlds" exhibit at no cost. This educational opportunity will allow members to better understand the human body and give them an opportunity that they would not otherwise have in the classroom setting.
